Opening Prayer

Unison Merciful God, as we enter Holy Week turn our hearts again to Jerusalem and to the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, that united with Christ and all the faithful
we may one day enter in triumph
the city not made with human hands,
the new Jerusalem, eternal in the heavens,
where with you and the Holy Spirit,
Christ lives in glory forever. Amen.

Humiliation & Vindication

Litany of Confession and Forgiveness

Unison O God of the past, present and future, as we watch and follow Jesus making his way into Jerusalem with shouts of acclamation and praise, we know all too well how vigorous expressions of support can suddenly grow silent in the face of strong opposition. We confess the tension we feel deep in our soul when under pressure we abandon our love and commitment to Christ. We easily mix our needs and wants with the purpose of the gospel and the ongoing work of the kingdom here on earth. In your mercy, O Lord, forgive us.

In the times and circumstances we are tempted to deny Jesus, help us to remain vigilant and strong. Amen. +

Elder In the coming days, friends of Jesus will plot against him; they will deny him and keep a safe distance from the cross.

People What happened to Jesus points to the very essence of the gospel; "Father, forgive them," Jesus said, "for they know not what they do."

Leader In this crazy world, there's an enormous distinction between good times and bad, between sorrow and joy.

People But in the eyes of God, they're never separated.

Where there is pain, there is healing, Where there is mourning, there is dancing.

In the midst of it all, there is the peace of Christ. Henri Nouwen

+ Hymn "O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing"

Unison The name of Jesus charms our fears, and bids our sorrows cease, sings music in the sinner's ears, brings life, and health and peace.

Leader May the peace of Jesus Christ be with you.
